It is hereby notified that the President has assented to the following Act which is hereby published for general information:—

No. 89 van 1998: Wet op Mededinging, 1998.

(English text signed by the President.)
(Assented to 20 October 1998.)

ACT

To provide for the establishment of a Competition Commission responsible for the investigation, control and evaluation of restrictive practices, abuse of dominant position, and mergers; and for the establishment of a Competition Tribunal responsible to adjudicate such matters; and for the establishment of a Competition Appeal Court; and for related matters.

PREAMBLE

The people of South Africa recognise:

That apartheid and other discriminatory laws and practices of the past resulted in excessive concentrations of ownership and control within the national economy, weak enforcement of anti-competitive trade practices, and unjust restrictions on full and free participation in the economy by all South Africans.

That the economy must be open to greater ownership by a greater number of South Africans.

That credible competition law, and effective structures to administer that law, are necessary for an efficient functioning economy.

That an efficient, competitive economic environment, balancing the interests of workers, owners and consumers and focussed on development, will benefit all South Africans.

IN ORDER TO—provide all South Africans equal opportunity to participate fairly in the national economy;

achieve a more effective and efficient economy in South Africa:

provide for markets in which consumers have access to, and can freely select, the quality and variety of goods and services they desire:

create greater capability and an environment for South Africans to compete effectively in international markets:

restrain particular trade practices which undermine a competitive economy:

regulate the transfer of economic ownership in keeping with the public interest:

establish independent institutions to monitor economic competition: and give effect to the international law obligations of the Republic.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

PART A

RESTRICTIVE PRACTICES

Restrictive horizontal practices prohibited 5

4. (1) An agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, is prohibited if—

(a) it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and it has the effect of substantially preventing or lessening competition in a market, unless a party to the agreement, concerted practice, or decision can prove that any technological, efficiency or other pro-competitive, gain resulting from it outweighs that effect; or

(b) it involves any of the following restrictive horizontal practices:

(i) directly or indirectly fixing a purchase or selling price or any other trading condition; 15

(ii) dividing markets by allocating customers, suppliers, territories, or specific types of goods or services; or

(iii) collusive tendering.

(2) An agreement to engage in a restrictive horizontal practice referred to in subsection (1)(b) is presumed to exist between two or more firms if— 20

(b) any combination of those firms engages in that restrictive horizontal practice.

(3) A presumption contemplated in subsection (2) may be rebutted if a firm, director or shareholder concerned establishes that a reasonable basis exists to conclude that the practice referred to in subsection (1)(b) was a normal commercial response to conditions prevailing in that market.

(b) the constituent firms within a single economic entity similar in structure to those referred to in paragraph (a).

Restrictive vertical practices prohibited

5. (1) An agreement between parties in a vertical relationship is prohibited if it has the effect of substantially preventing or lessening competition in a market, unless a party to the agreement can prove that any technological, efficiency or other pro-competitive, gain resulting from that agreement outweighs that effect. 45

(2) The practice of minimum resale price maintenance is prohibited.

(3) Despite subsection (2), a supplier or producer may recommend a minimum resale price to the reseller of a good or service provided— 50

(a) the supplier or producer makes it clear to the reseller that the recommendation is not binding; and

PART B

- (a) it has at least 45% of that market; 15
- (b) it has at least 35%, but less than 45%, of that market, unless it can show that it does not have market power; or

- (d) engage in any of the following exclusionary acts, unless the firm concerned can show technological, efficiency or other pro-competitive, gains which outweigh the anti-competitive effect of its act:
 - (i) requiring or inducing a supplier or customer to not deal with a 30 competitor;
 - (ii) refusing to supply scarce goods to a competitor when supplying those goods is economically feasible;
 - (iii) selling goods or services on condition that the buyer purchases separate goods or services unrelated to the object of a contract, or forcing a buyer 35 to accept a condition unrelated to the object of a contract;

 - (v) buying-up a scarce supply of intermediate goods or resources required by a competitor, 40

- (b) it relates to the sale, in equivalent transactions, of goods or services of like grade and quality to different purchasers; and
- (c) it involves discriminating between those purchasers in terms of—
 - (i) the price charged for the goods or services;

- (ii) any discount, allowance, rebate or credit given or allowed in relation to the supply of goods or services;
 - (iii) the provision of services in respect of [the goods or services]; or
 - (iv) payment for services provided in respect of the goods or services.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), conduct involving differential treatment of purchasers in terms of any matter listed in paragraph (c) of that subsection is not prohibited price discrimination if the dominant firm establishes (that the differential treatment—
- (a) makes only reasonable allowance for differences in cost or likely cost of manufacture, distribution, sale, promotion or delivery resulting from the differing places to which, methods by which, or quantities in which, goods or services are supplied to different purchasers;
 - (b) is constituted by doing acts in good faith to meet a price or benefit offered by a competitor; or
 - (c) is in response to changing conditions affecting the market for the goods or services concerned, including—
 - (i) any action in response to the actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods;
 - (ii) any action in response to the obsolescence of goods;
 - (iii) a sale pursuant to a liquidation or sequestration procedure; or
 - (iv) a sale in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods or services concerned.
