 - (gg) enter into agreements with or obtain the assistance of any department or organ of State to conduct or assist it in conducting any investigation or performing any other function in terms of this Act or the Levies Act;
 - (hh) cooperate with any person or body in the performance of an act which the Authority by law is permitted to perform; and

- (ii) generally perform any act that contributes to the attainment of its objects.

Governance of Authority

- 5. (1) The Authority is governed and controlled by the Council contemplated in section 6, in accordance with this Act.
- (2) The Authority acts through the Council and all acts of the Council are regarded as acts of the Authority.
- (3) The Authority must be impartial in the performance of its functions and must ensure that in the taking of decisions or other steps, it complies with all legal requirements for just administrative action.
- (4) The Authority must otherwise perform its functions in terms of this Act and the Levies Act and in accordance with such guidelines and policy directions as may be issued by the Minister from time to time by notice in the Gazette.
- (5) A guideline or policy direction issued by the Minister in terms of this section, may be amended, withdrawn or substituted by the Minister, by notice in the Gazette.

Establishment and constitution of Council and appointment of councillors

- 6. The Council for the Authority is hereby established and consists of the following councillors:
 - (a) a chairperson;
 - (b) a vice-chairperson; and
 - (c) three additional councillors,appointed by the Minister in consultation with Cabinet.

Disqualifications for appointment as councillor

- 7. A person may not be appointed as a councillor if such person-
 - (a) is not a citizen of or does not have permanent resident status in the Republic;
 - (b) (i) has a direct or indirect financial or personal interest in the private security industry; or
 - (ii) represents or is a member of a body representing the interests of employers or employees in the private security industry or security officers or any security business;
 - (c) is not a fit and proper person to hold office as a councillor;
 - (d) is an unrehabilitated insolvent; or
 - (e) has not obtained such a security clearance by the National Intelligence Agency as may have been determined by the Minister.

Terms and conditions of office, vacation of office and payment of remuneration and allowances

8. (1) A councillor is, subject to this section, appointed for a period not exceeding three years, on such terms and conditions as the Minister may determine in a letter of appointment.
- (2) A councillor is eligible for reappointment upon the expiry of his or her term of office, for a period not exceeding two additional terms, if he or she continues to meet the requirements for such appointment in terms of this Act.
- (3) A councillor vacates office when-
- (a) he or she becomes subject to any disqualification referred to in section 7;
 - (b) he or she has been absent from three consecutive meetings of the Council without leave of the Council;
 - (c) he or she is removed from office in terms of subsection (4); or
 - (d) his or her written resignation is accepted.
- (4) A member of the Council may at any time be suspended or removed from office by the Minister if there is a sound reason therefor.
- (5) If a councillor ceases to hold office the Minister must, with due regard to section 7, within a reasonable time appoint a person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired portion of the former councillor's term of office.
- (6) A councillor, or a member of a committee appointed by the Council, who is not an employee of the Authority or an officer or employee in the Public Service, may be paid from the funds of the Authority such remuneration and allowances as the Council may determine with the concurrence of the Minister.
- (7) The remuneration and allowances referred to in subsection (6) may differ according to different offices held by councillors or other persons or the different functions performed by them.

Functions of Council and chairperson

9. (1) The Council-
- (a) must take steps to achieve the objects of the Authority contemplated in section 3 and to ensure performance of the duties of the Authority;
 - (b) must oversee and exercise general control over the performance of the functions of the Authority and of the activities of the persons appointed by it to perform the work of the Authority; and
 - (c) may by notice in the Gazette make rules, subject to the provisions of this Act and the Levies Act, regarding-
 - (i) the good management of the affairs of the Council and the effective execution of its functions; and

- (ii) any matter necessary or expedient for the proper performance of the functions of the Authority.
- (2) The chairperson-
- (a) may, subject to ratification by the Council, exercise any power of the Council or fulfil any of its duties;
 - (b) must prepare the agenda of meetings of the Council;
 - (c) must sign the minutes of meetings of the Council;
 - (d) must provide strategic direction to the director and the Council;
 - (e) may attend meetings of the senior management of the staff of the Authority; and
 - (f) must establish and maintain liaison with the Secretariat for Safety and Security to ensure transformation in the Private Security Industry.

Accountability of Council

10. (1) The Council is accountable to the Minister for the performance of its functions and must-
- (a) supply the Minister with such information and particulars as the Minister may in writing require in connection with the functions of the Authority or any other matter relating to the Authority;
 - (b) as soon as may be reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year, but in any event within three months of the end of the financial year, supply the Minister with a copy of-
 - (i) the annual report on the activities of the Authority and the Council; and (ii) the audited financial statements contemplated in section 18(1), including any notes to the financial statements and the audit opinion of a duly appointed auditor contemplated in section 18(2); and
 - (c) table a copy of the annual report contemplated in paragraph (b)(i) in Parliament and present such further reports to Parliament as Parliament may request.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the annual report contemplated in subsection (1)(b)(i), must contain a fair account of the regulatory activities of the Authority, information on any other matter required by the Minister in writing, and information on any matter which it is necessary or expedient to bring to the attention of the Minister.

Ministerial supervision of Authority

11. If the Council or the Authority cannot or does not maintain an acceptable standard in the fulfilment of one or more of its functions in terms of this Act or the Levies Act, the Minister may intervene by taking any appropriate step to ensure proper fulfilment of that function, including-

- (a) issuing a directive to the Council or the Authority, describing the extent of the failure and stating the steps required to remedy the situation;
- (b) assuming responsibility for the relevant function or duty to the extent necessary-
 - (i) to maintain an acceptable standard; or
 - (ii) to prevent the Council, the Authority or any person appointed by the Council or the Authority, from taking any action which is prejudicial to the objects of the Authority; and
- (c) dissolving the Council and appointing a new Council.

Meetings and conflict of interests

12. (1) (a) The first meeting of the Council must be held on such date and at such a time and place as the Minister may determine.
- (b) All meetings of the Council thereafter must be held on such dates and at such times and places as the chairperson may determine in consultation with the Council.
- (2) (a) The chairperson may at any time convene a special meeting of the Council and must also convene such a meeting at the written request of the Minister.
- (b) If at least three councillors request a special meeting in writing, the chairperson must convene such a meeting within seven days after receiving the request.
- (3) The quorum for any meeting of the Council is a simple majority of the councillors in office at the time.
- (4) (a) Subject to subsection (3), a decision of the Council is taken by resolution agreed to by the majority of councillors at any meeting of the Council.
- (b) In the event of an equality of votes regarding any matter, the chairperson has a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote.
- (5) The procedure at a meeting of the Council must be determined by the chairperson in consultation with the Council, and any decision in this regard must be taken after due consideration of transparency and fairness: Provided that the law generally applicable to meeting procedures in South Africa must apply in the absence of a determination or agreement on the procedure to be followed.
- (6) The chairperson may, after consultation with the Council, require the director or a deputy director contemplated in section 14(1) and allow any person to attend any meeting of the Council on such conditions as the chairperson may determine.
- (7) A decision taken by the Council or an act performed in terms of that decision, is not invalid merely by reason of-
- (a) any irregularity in the appointment of a councillor;
 - (b) a vacancy on the Council;

- (c) the fact that any person was not entitled to sit as councillor at the time the decision was taken; or
 - (d) the fact that a councillor is guilty of an act or omission justifying his or her removal from office, if such decision was taken by a majority of councillors present at the time and entitled so to sit, and those councillors at the time constituted a quorum in terms of subsection (3).
- (8) A councillor may not attend, vote at, participate in or influence any meeting or decision of the Council, if the councillor has a conflict of interests which may reasonably be seen to preclude the councillor from performing the relevant function in a fair, unbiased and proper manner.
- (9) When the chairperson is absent or is unable to perform functions as chairperson or whenever the office of the chairperson is vacant, the vice-chairperson must act as chairperson during such absence or incapacity or until a chairperson is appointed.
- (10) (a) If both the chairperson and the vice-chairperson are absent or unable to perform the functions of the chairperson, the Council must appoint any other member to act as chairperson during such absence or incapacity.
- (b) If both the office of the chairperson and that of the vice-chairperson are vacant, the Minister must appoint any other person to act as chairperson until a chairperson or vice-chairperson is appointed.

Committees to assist Council

13. (1) The Council may appoint one or more committees consisting of one or more councillors, or one or more councillors and one or more other persons, or one or more other persons to advise or assist the Authority in relation to any matter referred to it by the Council and to report on that matter to the Council.
- (2) The Council may establish committees representing different sectors, disciplines or interests in the private security industry to advise it regarding the regulation of the private security industry.
- (3) The Council may designate a person as the chairperson of any committee if such committee consists of more than one member.
- (4) A committee must perform its functions subject to the provisions of this Act, the Levies Act and any directives of the Council.
- (5) The Council is not legally bound to accept any recommendation made by a committee.

Staff of Authority

14. (1) The Council must appoint a suitably qualified and experienced person as the director of the Authority, as well as three deputy directors, on such conditions and terms as may be determined by the Council.
- (2) The director and deputy directors of the Authority must, subject to the Council's direction and control-
- (a) establish administrative structures and divisions necessary for the performance of the functions of the Authority, which must include an office of the director, a finance and administration division, a law enforcement division and a training and communication division;

- (b) manage the day to day operations of the Authority and the execution of its financial and administrative, law enforcement, training, communication and other functions;
 - (c) ensure that the functions of the Authority are performed in terms of this Act and the Levies Act;
 - (d) manage, control and oversee the staff of the Authority as well as the performance of their functions;
 - (e) report to the Council on the performance and functioning of the Authority;
 - (f) prepare the business plan of the Authority; and
 - (g) perform any other function assigned to them by the Council.
- (3) The director and deputy directors of the Authority may in writing, with the approval of the Council, delegate any of their powers, and assign any of their duties, to a staff member of the Authority.
- (4) (a) The director of the Authority may appoint, subject to this Act and to the general or special directions of the Council, the staff of the Authority that may be necessary to perform the work arising from or connected with the Authority's functions in terms of this Act and the Levies Act.
- (b) The director must in the appointment of staff provide for the advancement of persons historically disadvantaged by unfair discrimination, with the aim that its staff, when viewed collectively, must represent a broad cross-section of the population of the Republic and must generally apply equal employment opportunity practices.
- (c) Staff members of the Authority may not have any financial interest in the private security industry and must successfully undergo such security clearance check conducted by the National Intelligence Agency, as may be determined by the Council if this is relevant in respect of their work.
- (5) Staff appointed in terms of this section may either be appointed as employees or in terms of a contract for a fixed period.
- (6) The terms and conditions of service of the Authority's staff and their remuneration, allowances, subsidies and other service benefits must be determined by the Council from time to time.

Delegation of powers and assignment of duties by Council

15. (1) Subject to subsection (5), the Council may assign any of its functions or duties and delegate any of its powers, except the power to make rules, to its chairperson or to any committee appointed in terms of section 13.
- (2) The Council is neither divested of any power nor relieved of any duty it may have delegated or assigned.
- (3) Any delegation or assignment-
- (a) may be made subject to any conditions determined by the Council;

- (b) may be given together with the power to sub-delegate or further assign, subject to such conditions as may be determined; and
 - (c) must be communicated to the delegatee or assignee in a written notice which contains sufficient particulars of the matters being delegated or assigned and of the conditions attached thereto.
- (4) The Council may at any time amend or revoke a delegation or assignment in terms of subsection (1), or withdraw any decision made by the delegatee or assignee with regard to a delegated or assigned matter and decide the matter itself, unless the decision by the delegatee has conferred a right on a third party.
- (5) The Minister may in a notice addressed to the Council prohibit, limit, or impose conditions regarding the-
- (a) delegation of any power of the Council; or
 - (b) assignment of any duty of the Council.

Funds of Authority

16. (1) The funds of the Authority consist of money from any legitimate source, received by or which has accrued to the Authority in terms of this Act or any other law.
- (2) The Authority must use its funds for defraying the expenditure incurred in the achievement of its objects and the performance of its functions in terms of this Act and the Levies Act.

Bookkeeping and financial statements

17. (1) The Authority must keep such accounting records as are necessary to reflect the transactions and financial state of affairs of the Authority.
- (2) The Authority must, in respect of each financial year of the Authority, make out financial statements and cause such statements to be audited by a registered accountant and auditor contemplated in section 18(2).
- (3) The financial statements referred to in subsection (2) must-
- (a) be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice as determined by the South African Institute of Chartered Accountants;
 - (b) by means of figures and a descriptive report, explain all matters and information material to the financial affairs of the Authority; and
 - (c) include-
 - (i) a balance sheet dealing with the assets and liabilities of the Authority;
 - (ii) an income statement or any similar financial statement dealing with the income and expenditure of the Authority; and
 - (iii) a statement of cash flows.

Auditing

18. (1) The accounting records and annual financial statements of the Authority must be audited annually by persons appointed by the Council.
- (2) No person may be appointed in terms of subsection (1), unless he or she is registered in terms of the Public Accountants' and Auditors' Act, 1991 (Act No. 80 of 1991), as an accountant and auditor engaged in public practice.

Financial year

19. The financial year of the Authority is a year ending on 31 March.

CHAPTER 3

REGISTRATION AS SECURITY SERVICE PROVIDER

Obligation to register and exemptions

20. (1) (a) No person, except a Security Service contemplated in section 199 of the Constitution (Act No. 108 of 1996), may in any manner render a security service for remuneration, reward, a fee or benefit, unless such a person is registered as a security service provider in terms of this Act.
- (b) A Security Service contemplated in section 199 of the Constitution may use persons employed by them and who are not registered as security service providers to render a security service.
- (2) A security business may only be registered as a security service provider-
- (a) if all the persons performing executive or managing functions in respect of such security business are registered as security service providers; and
- (b) in the case of a security business which is a company, close corporation, partnership, business trust or foundation, if every director of the company, every member of the close corporation, every partner of the partnership, every trustee of the business trust, and every administrator of the foundation, as the case may be, is registered as a security service provider.
- (3) Any contract, whether concluded before or after the commencement of this Act, which is inconsistent with a provision contained in subsections (1), (2) or section 44(6), is invalid to the extent to which it is so inconsistent.
- (4) The invalidity of a contract as contemplated in subsection (3), does not affect the applicability of any provision of this Act or the Levies Act.
- (5) The Minister may, after consultation with the Authority, by notice in the Gazette exempt any security service provider or security service provider belonging to a category or class specified in the notice, either generally or subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notice, from the operation of any provision of this Act.

Application for registration

21. (1) An application for registration as a security service provider must be made to the Authority in the prescribed manner and must be accompanied by-

- (a) a clear and complete set of fingerprints taken in the prescribed manner-
 - (i) of the applicant, if the applicant is a natural person;
 - (ii) if the applicant is a security business, of every natural person performing executive or managing functions in respect of such security business;
 - (iii) of each director, if the applicant is a company;
 - (iv) of each member, if the applicant is a close corporation;
 - (v) of each partner, if the applicant is a partnership;
 - (vi) of each trustee, if the applicant is a business trust; and
 - (vii) of each administrator or person in control, if the applicant is a foundation.
 - (b) the application fee as determined by the Authority; and
 - (c) any other document or certificate required in terms of this Act or by the Authority to be submitted with an application for registration.
- (2) Any person applying in terms of subsection (1) for registration as a security service provider, must furnish such additional particulars in connection with the application as the Authority may determine.
- (3) If the Authority is of the opinion that the provisions of this Act have been complied with in respect of an application referred to in subsection (1), it may grant such application and register the applicant as a security service provider.

Renewal of registration

22. The Minister may prescribe procedures and principles in respect of periodic applications for the renewal of registration by registered security service providers and the conditions and requirements for the granting of such applications.

Requirements for registration

23. (1) Any natural person applying for registration in terms of section 21(1), may be registered as a security service provider if the applicant is a fit and proper person to render a security service, and-
- (a) is a citizen of or has permanent resident status in South Africa;
 - (b) is at least 18 years of age;
 - (c) has complied with the relevant training requirements prescribed for registration as a security service provider;
 - (d) was not found guilty of an offence specified in the Schedule within a period of 10 years immediately before the submission of the application to the Authority;

- (e) was not found guilty of improper conduct in terms of this Act within a period of five years immediately before the submission of the application to the Authority;
 - (f) submits a prescribed clearance certificate, together with such other information as the Authority may reasonably require, if the applicant is a former member of any official military, security, police or intelligence force or service in South Africa or elsewhere;
 - (g) is mentally sound;
 - (h) is not currently employed in the Public Service in circumstances where such registration may conflict with a legislative provision applicable to the applicant;
 - (i) has paid the relevant application fee; and
 - (j) is not a person referred to in subsection (5).
- (2) A security business applying for registration as a security service provider in terms of section 21(1), may be so registered only if-
- (a) every natural person referred to in section 20(2) complies with the requirements of subsection (1) and is not an unrehabilitated insolvent; and
 - (b) such security business meets the prescribed requirements in respect of the infrastructure and capacity necessary to render a security service.
- (3) The Authority may cause any inspection to be held which it deems necessary to establish whether an applicant meets the requirements contemplated in subsection (2)(b), against payment by the applicant of an amount determined by the Authority for this purpose.
- (4) The Authority may refuse the registration of any person who-
- (a) at the time of submission or consideration of the application, is under State investigation in respect of an offence specified in the Schedule or who is being criminally prosecuted in respect of such an offence; or
 - (b) was convicted of an offence specified in the Schedule more than 10 years immediately before the submission of the application for registration to the Authority.
- (5) Despite any provision to the contrary, a person in the permanent employ of the Service, the Directorate of Special Operations, the National Intelligence Agency, the South African Secret Service, the South African National Defence Force or the Department of Correctional Services may not be registered as a security service provider whilst so employed.
- (6) Despite the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), the Authority may on good cause shown and on grounds which are not in conflict with the purpose of this Act and the objects of the Authority, register any applicant as a security service provider.

Register of security service providers

24. The Authority must keep a register in which it must enter the name and prescribed particulars of every security service provider registered in terms of this Act.

Registration and identification certificates

25. The Authority must, in the form prescribed and on such conditions as it may determine, issue a certificate of registration to any person and a certificate of identification to any natural person, registered as a security service provider.

Suspension, withdrawal and lapsing of registration

26. (1) If there is a prima facie case of improper conduct in terms of this Act, or of the commission of an offence referred to in the Schedule, against a security service provider, the Authority may suspend the registration of the security service provider-

- (a) pending the conclusion of an investigation or enquiry by the Authority into the alleged improper conduct; or
- (b) pending the conclusion of the criminal investigation by the State into the offence in respect of that security service provider, or a determination by the prosecuting authority or the finalisation of criminal proceedings in regard to the offence.

(2) The Authority may suspend the registration of a security business if any of the grounds contemplated in subsection (1) pertain to a natural person referred to in section 20(2).

(3) The effect of a suspension of registration is that the security service provider whose registration is suspended may not render any security service, unless the prior written permission of the Authority has been obtained, but during the period of such suspension the security service provider is still bound by all the obligations of a registered security service provider provided for in this Act and in the Levies Act.

(4) The Authority may, subject to section 5(3), withdraw the registration of a security service provider by written notice served on the security service provider if-

- (a) the security service provider has furnished to the Authority information in or in connection with the application for registration which is false;
- (b) there was some material irregularity in the registration of the security service provider concerned;
- (c) the registration was granted in error or on the basis of incorrect information furnished by any person, including any department or organ of State, to the Authority;
- (d) at any time after registration, the security service provider-
 - (i) is found guilty of an offence specified in the Schedule;
 - (ii) is found guilty of improper conduct in terms of this Act;
 - (iii) is no longer a fit and proper person to render a security service; or
 - (iv) does not comply with one or more of the requirements for registration referred to in section 23(1)(a), (b), (g), (h) and (j), or in section 23(2);
- (e) in the case of a security business, the registration of a person referred to in section 20(2) is withdrawn in terms of paragraphs (a), (b), (c) or (d); or in the case of a security business, any of the persons referred to in section 20(2) is for any other reason not registered as a security service provider.

- (5) The registration of a security service provider lapses if it is not renewed as contemplated in section 22.
- (6) Whenever the registration of a security service provider is suspended or withdrawn in terms of this Act or the Levies Act, or if it lapses, the security service provider must forthwith return to the Authority the certificate of identification or the certificate of registration, as the case may be, issued in terms of section 25.
- (7) The Authority may on application by a security service provider suspend or withdraw the registration of that security service provider in such circumstances and on such conditions as may be prescribed.
- (8) The Authority may uplift the suspension of the registration of a security service provider if there is reason to do so.

Application for court order in respect of a security service provider

27. (1) The Authority may by way of application on notice of motion apply to a court for an order-
 - (a) interdicting any security service provider from rendering a security service for such a period as the court may determine, if the security service provider is contravening a provision of this Act or if the activities or intended activities of the security service provider might seriously harm the national or the public interest or the interests of any category of persons; or
 - (b) compelling a security service provider to comply with a provision of this Act.
- (2) The court having jurisdiction in respect of an application in terms of subsection (1), is any division of the High Court of South Africa within whose area of jurisdiction the security service provider concerned is resident, employed or carries on business.

PROPER CONDUCT AND APPEAL

Code of conduct

28. (1) The Minister must, after consultation with the Council, prescribe a code of conduct for security service providers which contains sufficient procedures and rules of evidence for its enforcement.
- (2) The code of conduct is legally binding on all security service providers, irrespective of whether they are registered with the Authority or not and, to the extent provided for in this Act, on every person using his or her own employees to protect or safeguard merely his or her own property or other interests, or persons or property on his or her premises or under his or her control.
- (3) The code of conduct must contain rules-
 - (a) that security service providers must obey in order to promote, achieve and maintain-
 - (i) a trustworthy and professional private security industry which acts in terms of the law applicable to the members of the industry;

- (ii) compliance by security service providers with a set of minimum standards of conduct which is necessary to realize the objects of the Authority; and
 - (iii) compliance by security service providers with their obligations towards the State, the Authority, consumers of security services, the public and the private security industry in general; and
 - (b) to ensure the payment of minimum wages and compliance with standards aimed at preventing exploitation or abuse of employees in the private security industry, including employees used to protect or safeguard merely the employer's own property or other interests, or persons or property on the premises of, or under the control of the employer.
- (4) The code of conduct must be drawn up with due regard to-
- (a) the objects of the Authority; and
 - (b) the different categories or classes of security service providers, different types of security services and any other factor meriting differentiation not amounting to unfair discrimination.
- (5) The code of conduct may provide for different penalties in respect of different categories or classes of security service providers or other persons who employ a security officer.
- (6) (a) The code of conduct drawn up in terms of subsection (1) must first be published by the Minister in the Gazette with a notice indicating that the Minister intends to issue such a code and inviting interested persons to submit to the Minister within a stated period, but not less than four weeks from the date of publication of the notice, any objections to or representations concerning the proposed code of conduct: Provided that, if the Minister after the expiry of that period decides on any alterations of the proposed code as a result of any objections or representations, it is not necessary to publish such alterations for further comment.
- (b) The provisions of paragraph (a) apply with regard to any amendment of the code of conduct.
- (7) (a) A code of conduct comes into operation on a date determined by the Minister in the Gazette.
- (b) The Minister may for the purposes of paragraph (a) determine different dates in respect of different categories or classes of security service providers.

Improper conduct proceedings against security service providers

29. (1) Improper conduct proceedings may, in the prescribed manner, be instituted by the Authority against a security service provider or other person who employs a security officer, on account of an allegation of improper conduct, whether such improper conduct was allegedly committed within or outside the borders of the Republic.
- (2) The person presiding at improper conduct proceedings may, on good grounds, conduct or proceed with such proceedings in the absence of the security service provider concerned.

Appeal against decisions

30. (1) Any person aggrieved by-
- (a) the refusal by the Authority to grant his or her application for registration as a security service provider;
 - (b) the suspension or withdrawal of his or her registration as a security service provider by the Authority; or
 - (c) a finding against him or her, of improper conduct in terms of this Act, or the punishment imposed in consequence of the finding, may within a period of 60 days after service of the notification of the relevant decision contemplated in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), appeal to an appeal committee.
- (2) An appeal committee contemplated in subsection (1) is appointed by the Minister for every appeal and consists of-
- (a) a person with not less than five years' experience as an attorney, advocate or magistrate, who is the presiding officer; and may also include
 - (b) two other persons if it is considered appropriate by the Minister.
- (3) Every person serving as a member of an appeal committee must be independent from the Authority and may have no personal interest in the private security industry or in the affairs of an appellant.
- (4) The procedure in connection with the lodging and prosecution of an appeal in terms of this section must be prescribed.
- (5) The amounts payable by an appellant to the Authority in respect of the reproduction of records and related matters in the lodging and prosecution of an appeal must be prescribed.
- (6) The appeal committee hearing an appeal in terms of this section may confirm, set aside or vary the decision or substitute for such decision any other decision which in the opinion of the appeal committee ought to have been taken and direct the Authority to do everything necessary to give effect to the decision of the appeal committee.
- (7) A member of the appeal committee may be paid such remuneration and allowance as the Minister may, from time to time, determine with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance.

CHAPTER 5

MONITORING AND INVESTIGATION

Appointment of inspectors

31. (1) (a) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Council must appoint inspectors as staff members of the Authority in terms of this Act.
- (b) The provisions of section 14 apply, with the necessary changes, to the appointment of such inspectors.
- (2) Any person appointed in terms of this section must perform functions in terms of this Act and any other law, subject to the direction and control of the director.

- (3) The director must furnish every inspector with a certificate in the prescribed form to the effect that he or she has been so appointed and is deemed by virtue of section 34(3) of this Act to be a peace officer.
- (4) An inspector must at the request of any interested person produce the certificate when performing a function in terms of this Act.
- (5) The Council, or the director if he or she has been authorized generally or specifically by the Council, may, if it is considered necessary in the circumstances to acquire special expertise or to augment the capacity of the Authority temporarily, appoint any person, who is not in the full-time employment of the Authority, as an inspector for a particular inspection or to assist an inspector with a particular inspection.
- (6) A person appointed in terms of subsection (5), for the purpose of an inspection, has the same powers and duties as an inspector contemplated in subsection (1) and the provisions of subsections (3) and (4) and section 14 apply, with the necessary changes, to such a person.
- (7) When performing any function in terms of this Act, an inspector may be accompanied by and utilise the services of an assistant, an interpreter or any member of the Service.

Code of conduct for inspectors

32. (1) The Council must draw up a code of conduct for inspectors which is legally binding on all the inspectors employed by it.
 - (2) The code of conduct must contain rules relating to compliance by inspectors with a set of minimum standards of conduct which is necessary to realize the objects of the Authority.
 - (3) The code of conduct must provide for penalties for a contravention of the code of conduct.

Inspection of security service providers

33. (1) An inspector may, subject to any direction of the director, carry out an inspection of the affairs or any part of the affairs of a security service provider, of any other person who employs a security officer, or of a person whom the director has reason to believe is a security service provider or employs a security officer.
 - (2) An inspector who carries out an inspection in terms of this section must, on completion of the inspection, compile a report of the inspection, provide a copy thereof to the relevant security service provider or other person contemplated in subsection (1) and submit the original to the director.

Powers of inspectors relating to security service providers

34. (1) In order to carry out an inspection of the affairs of a security service provider or another person contemplated in section 33, an inspector may at any reasonable time-
 - (a) without prior notice, enter any premises-
 - (i) occupied by or used in connection with the rendering of a security service by a security service provider or another person contemplated in section 33;

- (ii) which the director has reason to believe are occupied by or used in connection with the rendering of a security service by a security service provider or another person contemplated in section 33; or
 - (iii) where or from where a security service is rendered or the director has reason to believe that such a service is rendered;
- (b) use any applicable equipment which has not been prohibited by the Council during such inspection and conduct such inspection, examination and investigation as may be necessary for the purpose of monitoring or enforcing compliance with this Act or the Levies Act;
- (c) use any computer system or equipment on the premises which is or appears to be utilised for the control or administration of the rendering of a security service, or require reasonable assistance from any person on the premises to use that computer system to-
 - (i) access any data contained in or available to that computer system relating to matters contemplated in paragraph (d);
 - (ii) reproduce any record from that data; and
 - (iii) seize, against the issue of a receipt, any output from that computer for examination and copying;
- (d) require from any person on the premises who is in control of the premises or appears to be performing managerial, supervisory, administrative or clerical functions relating to the rendering of a security service, at such a reasonable time and place as may be determined by the inspector-
 - (i) to disclose information, either orally or in writing, on any matter relating to the compliance with the provisions of this Act or the Levies Act, by the security service provider or other person contemplated in section 33, concerned;
 - (ii) to produce to the inspector all or any records or documentation relating to the activities of the security service provider or other person contemplated in section 33, and pertaining to such a period as may be determined by the inspector, including but not limited to-
 - (aa) a list with the names and identity numbers of all security officers² and other employees of the security service provider or other person contemplated in section 33 concerned, as well as a list with the names and identity numbers of all persons who are officials of the security service provider or other person contemplated in section 33, but who are not its employees;
 - (bb) the wage register, payroll, pay-slips or other similar documentation in respect of such security officers, officials and employees;
 - (cc) time-sheets and attendance registers reflecting the hours of work of such security officers, officials and employees;
 - (dd) posting sheets indicating the places where such security officers³ have been or are utilised in connection with a security service, the nature of such service, whether the security officers are in possession of any firearm or other weapon or have been provided with any firearm or other weapon by anyone and any legal authorisation regarding such a firearm;

- (ee) documentation indicating the level of security training of such security officers and officials;
 - (ff) personnel files of such security officers, officials and employees;
 - (gg) contracts entered into between the security service provider or other person contemplated in section 33, and such security officers, officials and employees;
 - (hh) documentation pertaining to deductions and payment of amounts by the security service provider or other person contemplated in section 33, to the Authority; and
- (iii) documentation pertaining to any contract between the security service provider or other person contemplated in section 33, and a client;
- (e) search the premises for any records or documentary information contemplated in paragraph (d);
 - (f) open any room, strongroom, safe, cabinet or other container which the inspector suspects contains any record or document relating to the affairs of the security service provider or other person contemplated in section 33, or cause it to be opened;
 - (g) inspect or examine any record or document contemplated in paragraph (d), or other article or object on or in the premises used or which appears to be used in connection with the rendering of a security service by the security service provider or other person contemplated in section 33 concerned and request information about any such document, article or object from any person contemplated in paragraph (c);
 - (h) make copies or extracts from any record or document contemplated in paragraph (d) or, against the issue of a receipt by the inspector, seize a record, document or object if the inspector has reason to believe that it can serve as evidence at any improper conduct proceedings or any other inquiry in terms of this Act.
- (2) Any person from whose possession any item contemplated in subsection (1) has been removed, or who otherwise to the satisfaction of the director or an inspector proves a right of ownership or possession in respect thereof, may during normal office hours be permitted by the director or inspector to investigate or examine the item in question, or extracts from any such record or document, under circumstances necessary to protect the integrity of the item in question.
- (3) (a) An inspector in respect of any provision of this or any other law applicable to security service providers is deemed to have been appointed as a peace officer by the Minister of Justice in terms of section 334 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No 51 of 1977), for the national territory of the Republic, and for the purpose of exercising the powers contemplated in sections 40, 41, 44, 45,46,47,48,49 and 56 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977.

- (b) An inspector may use the powers in terms of this subsection only to serve the purposes of this Act and matters incidental thereto.
- (4) A member of the Service or an inspector may demand the production of the registration and identification certificate contemplated in section 25, by any person purporting to be a security service provider.
- (5) Any member of the Service has all the powers conferred on an inspector in terms of this Act and the Levies Act.

CHAPTER 6

- (4) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any other provision of this Act or any provision of the Levies Act, is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 24 months, or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

Extra-territorial application of Act and jurisdiction

39. (1) Any act constituting an offence in terms of this Act and which is committed outside the Republic by any security service provider, registered or obliged to be registered in terms of this Act, is deemed to have been committed in the Republic.

(2) Any offence in terms of this Act is, for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of a court to try the offence, deemed to have been committed-

- (a) at the place where it was actually committed;

- (b) at the place where the accused is resident; and
- (c) at the place where the accused conducts his or her business.

Limitation of liability

40. The Minister, someone acting under the authority of the Minister, the Authority, a councillor contemplated in section 6, or any person in the employ of the Authority or performing functions in terms of this Act or the Levies Act, is not personally liable in respect of the bona fide exercise of a power or performance of a duty in terms of a provision of this Act or the Levies Act, if such exercise or performance was not grossly negligent.

Delegation of powers by Minister

41. (1) The Minister may upon such conditions as he or she may deem fit, delegate any of the powers conferred upon him or her by this Act, except the power mentioned in sections 1(2), 6, 8, 20, 28, 30 or 35 to the National Commissioner or a member of the Service designated by the National Commissioner.

(2) No delegation of any power prevents the exercise of such power by the Minister.

Act binds State

42. This Act binds the State.

Amendment and repeal of laws

43. The Security Officers Act, 1987 (Act No. 92 of 1987), is hereby repealed, with the exception of its provisions, including the regulations, relating to the deduction and payment of annual amounts, the funding of the Security Officers' Interim Board and the imposition of criminal and other sanctions relating thereto.

Transitional provisions

44. (1) In this section-

- (a) "repealed legislation" means the Security Officers Act, 1987 (Act No. 92 of 1987);
- (b) "Board" means the Security Officers' Interim Board established by section 2 of the repealed legislation.

(2) With effect from the date of commencement of this Act-

- (a) all assets, rights, obligations, duties and liabilities of the Board vest in the Authority and are deemed to have been acquired or incurred by the Authority, as the case may be, in terms of the provisions of this Act;
- (b) anything done or any decision or steps taken by the Board in terms of a provision of the repealed legislation is deemed to have been done or taken by the Authority, as the case may be, in terms of the corresponding provisions of this Act;
- (c) any regulation or a code of conduct made or drawn up in terms of the repealed legislation and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, remains in force to the extent that it is compatible with this Act, until amended, abolished or replaced in terms of this Act;

- (d) any reference in any law or document to the Board must be construed as a reference to the Authority;
 - (e) all proceedings which were pending before a court between the Board and any person or appeals pending before the Minister in terms of the repealed legislation, must continue as between the Authority and such person and must be disposed of as if this Act had not been enacted, unless the interests of justice require otherwise.
- (3) As soon as possible after the commencement of this Act the Authority must, on application by any person, against payment of such amount as may be determined by the Authority, effect all such changes or endorsements on any document that was issued by the Board or which reflects a transaction to which the Board was a party immediately prior to such commencement, as are necessary, to give effect to this section.
- (4) Any criminal proceedings, improper conduct proceedings or appeals against decisions of the Board instituted in terms of the repealed legislation and which has not been finalised at the commencement of this Act, must be dealt with and finalised as if such legislation had not been repealed.
- (5) The Registrar of Deeds concerned must make entries or endorsements in or on any relevant register, title deed or other document in the Registrar's office or submitted to the Registrar, which may be necessary in order to give effect to the provisions of subsection (2)(a) and no office fee or other charge is payable in respect of any such entry or endorsement.
- (6) (a) Any category or class of security service providers which was not obliged to be registered as security officers in terms of the repealed legislation immediately before the commencement of this Act, will not be subject to the provisions of this Act or the Levies Act, until such date as the Minister may determine by notice in the Gazette.
- (b) A notice contemplated in paragraph (a) may specify different dates in respect of different categories or classes of security service providers and must be published at least 180 days before any such date specified therein.
- (7) All provisions of the repealed legislation relating to the deduction and payment of annual amounts, the funding of the Board and the imposition of criminal and other sanctions relating thereto, including all relevant regulations, remain in force to provide for the funding of the Authority, until they are repealed by the implementation of the relevant provisions of the Levies Act.
- (8) The provisions of section 20 of the repealed legislation and the regulations made in relation thereto remain in force, with the necessary changes, as if the legislation had not been repealed, until a code of conduct for security service providers and provisions providing for the enforcement thereof come into operation.

Short title and commencement

45. This Act is called the Private Security Industry Regulation Act, 2001, and comes into operation on a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.
